

Lawrence

LOVE SNEAKS IN

18

4 5 LAWRENCE:
1-4 Love sneaks in when

6 7 8
ev - 'ry - thing seems qui - et Sets the bait — and like a fool, — you buy — it Your

9 10
fa - mous self pos - ses - sion's van - ished from your re - per - toire —

11 12
This is what — can hap - pen when — you leave the door — a - jar. And 13 14 15

love sneaks in and whis - pers to you sweet - ly Sil - ly words — that change your life — complete - ly. You're fumb - ling in the dark — The 17

16

18
mas - ter's now the mark — You're out of luck If love sneaks in — on 19

20
you

6
21-26

27
The

28
play - er has — been nice - ly played, — the mock - er's now the mocked

29

30
That's what tends to hap - pen when — you leave your - self un - locked. Then

31

32
love sneaks through the u - su - al de - fen - ses The sighs and smirks — and

33

34

#18 - Love Sneaks In

